TODAY

Theological Education Sunday is being observed throughout the Church at the proclamation of our Presiding Bishop. It is the one appeal each year for the support of our seminaries. These institutions which train our men for the priesthood depend on the people's gifts and offerings, as there is no official support for them from the Church. It is the usual custom of the parish to give its offering to the seminary where its priest has been trained. Our offering will be given to Nashotah House. If you wish your offering to go to another seminary, please mark your envelope accordingly. Special envelopes are provided for this offering.

Saturday - - - - - 9:30 A.M.

SEPTUAGESIMA

Septuagesima Sunday is the first of the three Sundays leading up to Lent. The other two are called Sexagesima and Quinquagesima. Together they make up the Church's Pre-Lenten Season. The purpose of this season is to prepare us for the observance of Lent.

The names for these Sundays were probably arrived at in this way: The Sunday before Ash Wednesday, being exactly fifty days before Easter, was called Quinquagesima (50). Septuagesima (70) and Sexagesima (60) Sundays, which are respectively sixty-four and fifty-seven days before Easter, are supposed to have been called, by analogy, from the next decades.

BE A PRAYERFUL CHRISTIAN

Begin and end each day with prayer. In all your hours of temptation and difficulty, when you are perplexed, and when you begin any new work, ask our Lord to guide you.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

June 16, 1963 - 11 A.M. - Mass of Corpus Christi

Hymns: Nos. 347 - 213 - 189 - 212 - 198

Collect:

O God, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of thy Passion: grant us, we beseech thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruit of thy redemption; Who.... livest....

The Epistle. 1 Corinthians xi. 23.

Brethren: I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's Body.

The Holy Gospel. St. John vi. 55

At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews, My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that Bread which came down from heaven; not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this Bread shall live forever.

The Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst will to restore all things in thy well beloved Son, The King of Kings and Lord of Lords; mercifully grant that all the kindreds of the earth, set free from the calamity of sin, may be brought under His most gracious dominion; who with thee, etc..

The Epistle, Col. 1:12

Brethren, we give thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the Kingdom of His dear Son: in whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins; who is the image of the invisible God, the first born of every creature; for by Him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by Him and for Him; and He is before all things, and by Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the Church; who is the beginning, the first born from the dead; that in all things He might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in Him should all fullness dwell; and having made peace through the blood of His cross, by Him to reconcile all things to Himself; by Him, I say, whether they be things in earth or things in heaven.

The Holy Gospel: St. John 18:33

Then Pilate entered into the Judgment Hall again and called Jesus, and said unto Him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: What hast thou done? Jesus answered, My Kingdom is not of this world, if my Kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my Kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto Him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

On Tuesday of this week at 8:00 P.M. the CATHOLIC LAYMEN'S UNION will meet at St. Thomas' Church, 52nd & Parrish Streets. Father Alberts will give the second of his addresses on the Creeds. Those of us who heard the first address found it not only interesting but lively. Father Alberts is a good teacher and has a way of imparting knowledge that is anything but dull. We who listened to him last month are looking forward to Part II. Following the meeting refreshments are served. Father Edwards invites all the men to meet him at the Rectory at 7:30 on Tuesday evening and we will attend the meeting in a body.

Next Sunday is ADVENT SUNDAY. It is the first day of a new Church Year. The Church's Liturgical Year begins with the first Sunday in Advent. For the Collect, Epistle & Gospel we turn back in our Prayer Book to Page 90, and begin all over again. It is the Church's New Year's Day. Throughout the Church it is a day of Corporate Communion for men and boys. At St. George's it is FAMILY EUCHARIST SUNDAY. All of us plan to receive Holy Communion at the 9:00 O'CLOCK MASS next Sunday as we begin our penitential preparation for the Feast of Christmas. Arrange to stay for the Coffee Hour.

Today is Bible Sunday. Rich in poetry, beautiful in expression, exciting in narrative, the Bible is a literary masterpiece for all men. For the Christian, however, it is more. It is a source of wisdom, revealer of truth, voice of prophecy, a record of divine acts and man's response.

SOME SUGGESTIONS for your comfort at the Midnight Mass:

- (1) Those who arrive first sit up front and leave the rear seats for late comers.
- (2) Allow the Acolytes and Choir to receive Holy Communion and return to their places before coming to the Altar Rail.
- (3) Do not leave your pew until there is room at the Altar. This will avoid crowding and waiting in the Chancel.

A Social Note - Recently Father Edwards invited all the Senior Acolytes to the Rectory for a Spaghetti Dinner. Father Barnett was also our guest. We all had a wonderful evening and the Dinner was superb (which wasn't surprising since I cooked it myself); also all the products used were by San Giorgio - naturally.

The beautiful rose colored rugs which appeared in the Chancel for the first time at Christmas were given by Mr. Robert J. Briggs. He also installed them for us - each with a foam rubber base. This latter feature is much appreciated by the priest and acolytes - saves wear and tear on the knees, if you know what we mean.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Penna. will hold a hearing concerned with the site of the Church House on Thursday, January 9, 1964 at 8 P.M. in the Church House. All interested persons are requested to attend to present their views. If you plan to attend please tell Father Edwards so that he may notify the Secretary.

ALTAR FLOWERS

The flowers on the Altar this morning were given in memory of Thomas Edwards.

THE LEAFLET

The cost of this issue of the Parish Leaflet was contributed by Father Edwards.

This afternoon at 3:00 o'clock Father Edwards will conduct the Service of Evening Prayer with a Sermon, at the Home for Widows and Single Women, 3615 Chestnut Street. One of our good and faithful parishioners, Mrs. Leona Smith, is a resident there.

This Week MASS will be celebrated as follows:

Tuesday	8:00 A.M.	St. Agnes
Friday	8:00 A.M.	St. Timothy
Saturday	9:30 A.M.	Conversion of St. Paul

The Catholic Clerical Union will meet at St. Mary's Church, 3916 Locust Street on Tuesday, January 21st at 11:00 A.M. Father Edwards expects to attend.

Next week is THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY when we make our annual offering for the support of the Church's Seminaries. Special envelopes are provided for our use. Each of us should give at least one dollar. The important thing is that each of us have a share in providing training for our priests.

Normally each priest sends his parish offering to the seminary at which he received his preparation. Father Edwards is a graduate of Nashotah House, situated at Nashotah, Wisconsin. However, if you wish your offering to be sent to another of the Church's seminaries simply mark the envelope accordingly and it will be forwarded by the Accounting Warden.

If you are willing to contribute THREE DOLLARS to the cost of one of these weekly leaflets write your name on the Chart on the Bulletin Board. Unless you prefer a special Sunday please fill up the weeks in the order that they come.

The Rector's prediction happily has come true. The Christmas Offering has exceeded $600. At last counting it was $605.

ANNUAL SERVICE for EPISCOPAL YOUNG CHURCHMEN

A meeting of CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS will be held today in the Parish House after Mass.

SEPTUAGESIMA

Septuagesima Sunday is the first of the three Sundays leading up to Lent. The other two are called Sexagesima and Quinquagesima. Together they make up the Church's Pre-Lenten Season. The purpose of this season is to prepare us for the observance of Lent.

The names for these Sundays were probably arrived at in this way: The Sunday before Ash Wednesday, being exactly fifty days before Easter, was called Quinquagesima (50). Septuagesima (70) and Sexagesima (60) Sundays, which are respectively sixty-four and fifty-seven days before Easter, are supposed to have been called, by analogy, from the next decades.

BE A PRAYERFUL CHRISTIAN

Begin and end each day with prayer. In all your hours of temptation and difficulty, when you are perplexed, and when you begin any new work, ask our Lord to guide you.

The Celebrant at the 8:00 A.M. Mass is the Reverend Frank Williamson, Jr., Rector Emeritus of St. Michael's Church, Yeadon. He will continue to assist us in this way until he is called to other service.

St. Martha's Guild will meet in the Parish House after Mass today. At this time there will be an election to fill the vacancy in the office of Treasurer.

The February meeting of the Vestry will be held on Tuesday of this week at 8 P.M. in the Rectory.

This week Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 8:00 A.M. and on Thursday and Saturday at 9:30 A.M. On Wednesday evening at 8:00 the service will be Evening Prayer and Sermon.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 657 will have its Second Annual Scout Day and Bean Supper on Saturday, February 22nd starting at 3:00 P.M. in the Parish House. Court of Honor and Hobby Display will highlight the afternoon. The Bean Supper will be $1.00 per family. All are welcome to join in the fun.

We had a wonderful turnout for Ash Wednesday. At the close of the day the words of the prayer at the end of the Baptismal service kept popping into the Rector's mind "that this child may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning". It is his fervent prayer that we all may keep the rest of Lent according to this beginning.

The Church Magazines and Newspapers and Tracts on the table in the Church Porch are free. We will be happy if you take them home and read them. They are of many sorts. You should find them interesting, informative and helpful.

Boxes of Easter Eggs are on hand and may be obtained from Mr. George J. Wetzel.

The Church School Teachers will gather in the Parish House after the 11 o'clock Mass for a short meeting with the Rector.

This week Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 8:00 A.M. and on Thursday and Saturday at 9:30 A.M. Tuesday is the feast of St. Matthew, the Apostle. On Wednesday at 8:00 P.M. the service will be Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Next Week is the first Sunday in March. The Mass will be held at 9:00 A.M. only. It is our monthly Parish Corporate Holy Communion (Family Eucharist). It is the Mass for the whole Family. Bring the children with you. It is not a Church School holiday; it is a day when the children worship with their parents in the church. There will be a Coffee Hour in the Parish House after the Mass. St. Martha's Guild will provide the refreshments.

On Saturday, March 14th, Father Edwards will conduct a Quiet Day for women in St. George's Church. Everybody is welcome to come. The day will begin with Mass and Holy Communion at 9:30 A.M. Those who attend are asked to bring a Box Lunch. The beverage will be served. Full schedule will be posted.

Next Sunday is the fourth Sunday in Lent, called Mid-Lent Sunday and Laetare. This is one of the two Sundays when Rose colored Vestments may be worn. The other is the Third Sunday in Advent.

BE FAITHFUL IN ATTENDING CHURCH. Do not let trifling reasons keep you from Mass on Sundays (your "bounden duty and service".) Always be on time, enter heartily into the worship, and endeavor to profit personally by your participation. Make it a rule, when possible, to attend a weekday Mass.

A faithful few have been attending the weekday Masses and the Wednesday evening service since Lent began - God bless them. But one is moved to ask, "Where are the rest?" Surely there are others for whom it is possible to come to a morning or evening weekday service. We have reached the middle of Lent. There is not much time left.

And think dogs and cats are a bore.
Why limit your friends to just two feet apiece
When so many nice creatures have four?

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

This is the day which the Lord hath made;
Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia!

Father Edwards wishes every one of you a holy and happy Easter.

This is a reminder that next Sunday is the first Sunday in April and the Mass is the Family Eucharist and Parish Corporate Holy Communion. The hour - 9:00 A. M.

There is no Church School. Bring the children with you to Mass.

Following the Mass there will be the Coffee Hour in the Parish House.

Next Sunday - even if you do not plan to stay for the Coffee Hour - you are asked to stop into the Parish House for a few minutes after Mass and fill in forms for the use of the Diocese in making its Episcopal Census. It should take only a short time for each to complete a standard questionnaire. No names are attached to the forms. Names are recorded only as a means of knowing which parishioners have completed the forms. All the Parishes are asked to do this and we want to do the best we can. You can readily see, however, that whether we do a good job or not depends upon the kind of cooperation we receive from the members of the parish.

Confirmation will be held on Sunday, June 21st at 4:00 P.M. Application forms will be found on the table in the Church Porch.

We hope that you will be generous with your Easter gift to your Church. The Parish depends heavily for support upon these special offerings. Extra Easter Offering envelopes are supplied.

Hymns: Nos. 347 - 213 - 189 - 212 - 198

Collect:

O God, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of thy Passion: grant us, we beseech thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruit of thy redemption; Who.... livest....

The Epistle. 1 Corinthians xi. 23.

Brethren: I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you. That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's Body:

The Holy Gospel. St. John vi. 55

At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the jews, My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that Bread which came down from heaven; not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this Bread shall live forever.

The Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, who didst will to restore all things in thy well beloved Son, The King of Kings and Lord of Lords; mercifully grant that all the kindreds of the earth, set free from the calamity of sin, may be brought under His most gracious dominion; who with thee, etc.

The Epistle, Col. 1:12

Brethren, we give thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the Kingdom of His dear Son: in whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins; who is the image of the invisible God, the first born of every creature; for by Him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by Him and for Him;
and He is before all things, and by Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the Church; who is the beginning, the first born from the dead; that in all things He might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in Him should all fullness dwell; and having made peace through the blood of His cross, by Him to reconcile all things to Himself; by Him, I say, whether they be things in earth or things in heaven.

The Holy Gospel: St. John 18:33

Then Pilate entered into the Judgment Hall again and called Jesus, and said unto Him, Art thou the King of the Jews: Jesus answered him Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?
Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: What hast thou done? Jesus answered, My Kingdom is not of this world, if my Kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my Kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto Him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

Today is a holy day in honor of all the Saints. The central theme that runs through the Collect and Lessons is the blessedness of the Saints. The COLLECT is a commemoration of the union of God's elect in the mystical Body of Christ, and a prayer that we may follow the example of the Saints and come to the joys which God has prepared for His people. The EPISTLE is St. John's vision of the triumph of the Saints, and the GOSPEL sets forth the blessedness of saintship (beatitudes). The First Lesson of Morning Prayer gives us those lovely and comforting words from the Book of Wisdom: "The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die, and their departure is taken for misery . . . but they are in peace."

ALL SOULS' DAY

- (3) Do not leave your pew until there is room at the Altar. This will avoid crowding and waiting in the Chancel.

VESTRY MEETING

The Vestry will meet this morning after High Mass in the Parish House. (Postponed from last Sunday).

Next Week is THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY when we make our annual offering for the support of the Church's Seminaries. Special envelopes are provided for our use. Those who have Church Envelopes will find a Special Envelope in the box. Those who do not have Church Envelopes will find an envelope on the Church Porch for this purpose. The important thing is that each of us have a share in providing training for our priests.

Normally each priest sends his Parish Offering to the seminary at which he received his preparation. Father Edwards is a graduate of Nashotah House, situated at Nashotah, Wisconsin. However, if you wish your offering to be sent to another of the Church's seminaries simply mark the envelope accordingly, and it will be forwarded by the Accounting Warden.

If you are willing to contribute THREE DOLLARS to the cost of one of the weekly leaflets, write your name on the Chart on the Bulletin Board. Unless you prefer a special Sunday, please fill up the weeks in the order that they come.

FATHER EDWARDS

Father Edwards is happy to report he continues to improve and the doctor is satisfied with the progress.

WASNESS AND ISNESS

Matt Talbot was a drunkard,
St. Dismas was a thief,
Magdalen a playgirl,
And Thomas without belief.
But there they are in heaven
Smiling down upon us now,
Each having a tilted halo
O'er a badly battered brow!
So the sin of all you sinners
Does not definitely damn,
For your wasness does not matter
If your isness really am.

SEPTUAGESIMA

Septuagesima Sunday is the first of the three Sundays leading up to Lent. The other two are called Sexagesima and Quinquagesima. Together they make up the Church's Pre-Lenten Season. The purpose of this season is to prepare us for the observance of Lent.

The names for these Sundays were probably arrived at in this way: The Sunday before Ash Wednesday, being exactly fifty days before Easter, was called Quinquagesima (50). Septuagesima (70) and Sexagesima (60) Sundays, which are respectively sixty-four and fifty-seven days before Easter, are supposed to have been called, by analogy, from the next decades.

BE A PRAYERFUL CHRISTIAN

Begin and end each day with prayer. In all your hours of temptation and difficulty, when you are perplexed, and when you begin any new work, ask our Lord to guide you.

The Church Magazines and Newspapers on the table in the Church Porch are free. We will be happy if you take them home and read them. You should find them interesting, informative and helpful.

WHY I QUIT BASEBALL

1. Every time I went to the ball park, somebody always asked for money.
2. Although I went to the ball games quite often, no one ever spoke to me. They were the most unfriendly people.
3. I was a good fan but the manager never came to call on me.
4. The seats were too hard. With all the money they had one would think they could provide more comfortable seats.
5. The umpire said things I could not agree with.
6. I suspected that I was sitting with people who were hypocrites. They seemed more interested in beer and hot dogs than they were in the game.
7. The band always played the same tunes. I could find better music elsewhere.
8. Since buying a book on baseball, I stay home and read it. I consider myself just as good a baseball fan as those who attend the games.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

June 20, 1965 - 11 A.M. - Mass of Corpus Christi

Hymns: Nos. 367 - 288 - 574 - 211 - 204

Collect:

O God, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of thy Passion: grant us, we beseech thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruit of thy redemption; Who.... livest....

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians xi. 23.

Brethren: I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you. That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's Body.

The Holy Gospel: St. John vi. 55

At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the jews, My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that Bread which came down from heaven; not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this Bread shall live forever.
